BOOK SYNOPSIS

After a supposed Bigfoot sighting is broadcasted on national news, Chess Ridley and his roommate, Seemus, are offered the opportunity of a lifetime. As a talented writer at a media conglomerate, Chess is frustrated by the lack of progress in his career and life. He sets his sights on becoming as famous as Julie Knowles, a popular reporter at the same conglomerate. When Chess asks to be transferred to Julies department and is denied by his boss, he loses all hope. And that's when Seemus asks him to join a documented search for Bigfoot that will be released on a popular TV channel. Chess vows to never become a Bigfoot believer, but agrees to go along for the adventure because it's his chance at fame. He ends up learning more than he had anticipated; about his roommate, conspiracy theories, and... himself.
